REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 9 and 20 are allowed.
2. Claims 1-8 and 10-19 are cancelled.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of records fails to disclose or render an obviousness of a method and an apparatus for performing an arithmetic operation of an integer on a basis of a residue number system comprising an input/output unit for configuring to input data included in modulus  $p$ ; a storage unit for storing at least a portion of a plurality of base parameter sets; a base selection unit for selecting base parameter; and a plurality of arithmetic units for performing operations in parallel wherein the numbers of the base parameters of each base parameter set in storage unit are multiples of  $\{u-t, u-t+1, \dots, u\}$  respectively;  $u$  is a number of arithmetic units and  $t$  is a maximum integer of a number of unused ones of the arithmetic units as cited in the independent claims 9 and 20.

The closest found prior art is Kenneth et al. ("The use of residue number systems in the design of finite impulse response digital filters"). Kenneth et al. disclose a method for performing an arithmetic operation of an integer on a basis of a residue number system comprising an input/output unit for configuring to input data included in modulus  $p$ ; a storage unit for storing at least a portion of a plurality of base parameter sets; a base selection unit for selecting base parameter; and a plurality of arithmetic units for performing operations in parallel. However, Kenneth et al. fail to disclose the numbers of the base parameters of each base parameter set in storage unit are multiples of  $\{u-t, u-t+1, \dots, u\}$  respectively;  $u$  is a number of arithmetic units and  $t$  is a maximum integer of a number of unused ones of the arithmetic units as cited in the present claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
